Want to improve your delivery performance, optimise margins and avoid cost overruns?

The cost of correcting an issue is many times the cost of preventing it early in the lifecycle. We provide proven Project/Programme/Portfolio Management (P3M) and Systems Engineering (SE) expertise to work as an integrated part of industry teams, to ensure projects are well defined, launched, and mobilised effectively; with the right controls established; increasing the likelihood of delivery success.

- Proven P3M and SE expertise, fully integrated with industry teams
- Transferring best practice knowledge to industry
- Coherent and repeatable approach, applying common methodology

Want to access the right skills at the right time to meet your needs?

It is difficult matching resource/capability supply to an often dynamically changing demand. We provide a flexible partnering approach, supplying proven P3M, Project Controls, Change, Risk, SE experts to supplement industry teams, balancing supply with demand.

- Flexible partnering model
- Proven P3M, Change, Risk and SE experts, that can be immediately productive
- Coherent and repeatable approach, applying common methodology

Or need confidence in the future delivery performance of existing major projects?

We are accredited to provide independent and objective Project/Programme/Portfolio Management Maturity Model (P3M3) assessments, to evaluate the effectiveness of the management approach and controls; resulting in clear recommendations for improvement.

Struggling to quantify and realise benefits from your change initiatives? Suffering change fatigue?

It is a challenge to maintain momentum throughout change programmes, especially when reliant on busy teams with existing responsibilities. We provide independent Change experts to lead the definition and delivery of change initiatives, maintaining momentum through to completion, and benefits realisation.

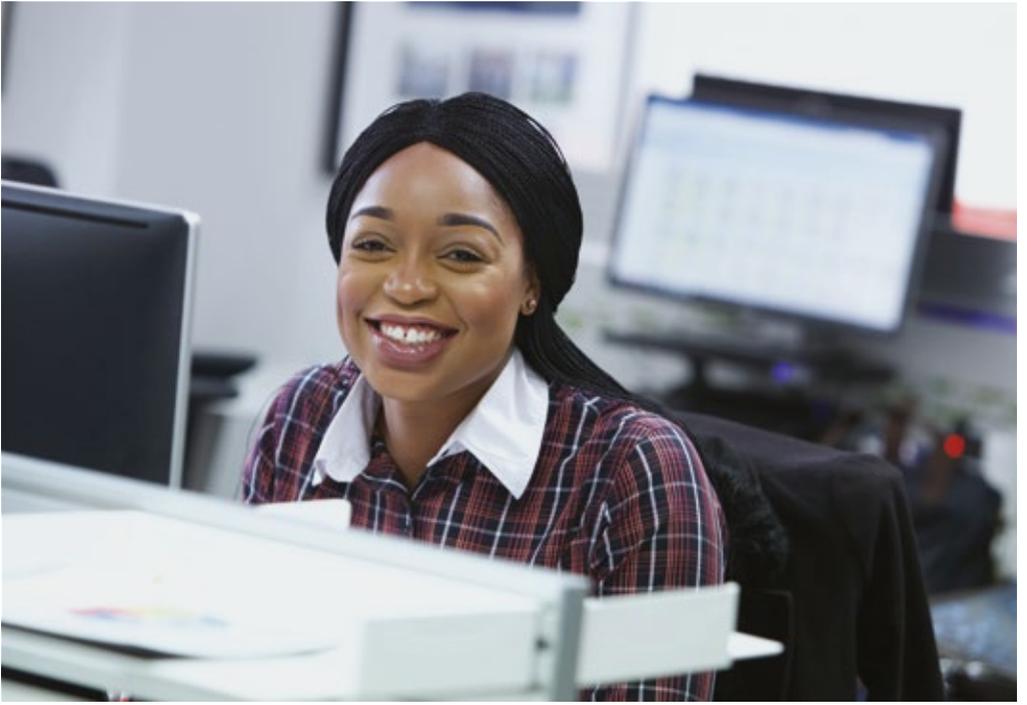

- Experienced Change experts
- Independence from internal agendas and business as usual pressures
- Providing drive, and relieving the burden on busy industry teams

Lack of experience with UK MoD, and need to improve your delivery credibility?

While you may have a great offer, your unfamiliarity with UK MoD processes and expectations, presents a risk for both you and UK MoD. We provide UK MoD experienced experts to work as an integrated part of industry teams, to improve your win probabilities and delivery outcomes.

- Experts experienced with UK MoD demands and expectations
- Supporting organisations through the learning curve
- Improving credibility at bid, and reducing risk in delivery
